SIR CHRISTOPHER KELLY,

COMMITTEE ON STANDARDS IN PUBLIC LIFE.

Dear Sir Christopher,

I believe you have spoken of "public outrage" in response to recent revelations concerning MP's expenses. I wanted to endorse this sentiment particularly with regard to the Home Secretary's submission for pornographic films, which almost defies belief. Sadly expectations are now sufficiently compromised not to be incredulous.

I hope that public outrage is not encouraged to end in cynicism or apathy as a result of mere platitudes from your enquiry. Please give us some hard hitting criticism and objective targets.

Yours sincerely,

I Lawrence.
