Dear Sirs
I offer their contributions to Your Committee's inquiry into the payments of members of Parliament:

- The report should clarify the role of The Commons Commission and the Parliamentary Commission to this point, and identify how effectively this role was fulfilled.

- any new system of payment should be undertaken as a priority.

Proposals for payment should be used to support the government's policy. So, for example, penalties should be brought within the general taxation framework, paying tax on leases and the sale of new homes rather than tax payers, should be reviewed annually to cover additional income, be enhanced security
