

Dear Sirs,

I think that a block of flats should be bought so that all MPs from outside `London have an identical flat with a small allowance for heating and light. One double bedroom, sitting room, bathroom and kitchenette. The flats would pay for themselves over the long term and all would be equal!

J Beales