

Dear Sir Christopher,

I urge you to reject the idea that MPs should be allowed to claim for 'second homes' since they are being allowed to profit from these homes at the taxpayers expense. Instead it should be the state that owns London accommodation for MPs (apartments owned by the taxpayer for this and all future generations of MPs)

Regards,

M Limon